Letters To The Editor ...

The Editor, The Elba Clipper, Elba, Alabama

This is an open letter to all the citizens of Elba: On your vacation this summer how many towns did you travel through that had a courthouse square? If you traveled through the South there were many I'm sure. Those that had beautiful lawns and shrubbery surely caused you to think "How pretty-this would be a nice town to band to Mary Russell, $1.00. live in, I bet." Although the property around the courthouse is kept up by the county, the city is affected most by thority, City of Samson, $10.

A good beginning was made by the interior improvements in our courthouse. With further beautification of the grounds the Square could be turned into a thing pride and beauty-something all Elbians would view with pleasure. With all the civic clubs contributing, no one would be over burdened in work or finances. Shrubs, dogwoods, azaleas, and concrete park benches all would make the Square more beautiful.

Since the State of Alabama has seen fit to pass a law fining anyone fifty dollars who throws paper or litter on the highway, it seems only right that our town too should have such a law-not only to beautify, but to keep down the expense of having someone clean it up.

A Beautification Committee made up of a representa- cille Crenshaw, 11:45; Victoria, Eve from each civic group could get the job done it seems. Mrs. V. C. survive. There are four sound reasons ing rather than growing? why every person should attend service For centuries men have gone forth from their regularly and support the Church. Th homes to work, either by foot, ship, horseback or are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For hi in a jet that can cross a continent between lunch children's sake. (3) For the sake of h and dinner. Whether in the end it was "worth it" community and nation. (4) For the sak has always depended on whether a man found of the Church itself, which needs h time as the years went by for those things even moral and material support. Plan to g to church regularly and read your Bible more important than success—his family, his home, If the demands of your job—the pace of your life—have chained you to a clock that is getting bigger than you are, pause to remember: in any human life there are only so many hours, none of which may be reclaimed once they've ticked by, Pause to realize, too, that it takes only a minute to pray, only an hour to go to church on Sunday -yet the benefits reaped from even such brief dedication to God can be eternal.
